PASTOR'S PAGE

Lately, I've been thinking about how the tunes in my head and the thoughts from my heart are so intertwined. Growing up, I listened to some tapes by Psalty, a songbook that tells others about God's love. Mom would play Psalty for us in the car all the time. It was her way of keeping us singing instead of fighting. (Thanks to Renae Rich, I learned they still exist, and I might have to order some for the boys!) A lot of scripture passages and Christian messages I heard from Psalty were very formative to my faith life, my heart loves and sings those songs today.

In high school and college, there was of course quite a variety of voices and tunes fighting for my attention. However, my campus pastor with his guitar and camp tunes won my heart over, by always speaking powerful words of scripture into simple tunes I could remember and dwell on, whatever my mode. To be honest, in the years where life seemed to be a struggle, Alanis Morissette and especially her song, "Ironie," really spoke to me! And sadly, when I went to seminary and just about failed summer Greek, Rodney Atkin's song, "If You're Going Through Hell" kept telling me to "keep on going!" Thankfully, this too passed, as did I! Yes, some thoughts and songs of our lives and hearts are more reverent than others.

No matter what, there is always a song that rings true and speaks to my heart, and perhaps yours as well. Since coming to Lord of Love, your music has awakened the joy music brings to my heart, including some songs and tunes I've never heard or sang before, to the simple tunes turned into masterpieces, like Jon Novak's arrangement of "Jesus Loves You," which rang in my ears and heart both at my installation and at Dan Manning's funeral.

However, I think the songs that repeat and ring/sing in our ears truly matter (despite arguments I've had with some teens over the years who tried to tell me it is the beat, not the words, that they are drawn to.) I'm convinced those tunes matter to our hearts and what we'll let come out of our mouths too! So what song sings and rings most loudly in your heart these days? Do you too find that the words and the tune reflects the words and emotions that flow out of your mouth? During Lent, when our senses are often heightened by the change of tunes and extra silences, what message do you find rising from your heart?

"Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, O LORD, my strength and my redeemer."

Psalm 19:14

A song/prayer worth pondering for these questions is Psalm 19, especially verse 14: "Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, O LORD, my strength and my redeemer." As I think about the tunes that fill our mouths, our heads, and our hearts, especially as we approach Holy Week, it makes me keenly aware of the power these tunes and words have over me emotionally and spiritually. The same will be true when the tune changes again to ring with good news of Easter and we sing the "A-word," (Al!*$%*@) again, proclaiming, "Christ is risen!"

As we approach these holy occasions, how are you letting God's word and music ring/sing through your being? How do these tunes speak to your heart and influence your response to life around you?

If thoughts of God come easily, may the verse above urge you on, but if your answer is, it really doesn't, might I suggest you spend some more time reading the songs and prayers of others through the book of Psalms as a discipline, and encourage you to attend worship with all your senses. For when we really worship God, Christ's story speaks to us through sights, sounds, tastes, smells and touch.

Finally, may we pay attention to the songs we sing, for I am convinced it truly makes a difference in the words and actions people see and hear from us.

So as one midweek Lenten song prayed: "May they know we are Christians by our love." May the song that bubbles up out of our hearts witness to the strength and knowledge we find through Jesus Christ. Amen.

WORSHIP

Holy Week & Easter Worship Schedule

During Holy Week, the week between Palm Sunday and Easter, there will be no Wednesday service or soup supper. Maundy Thursday service with Holy Communion will take place on April 13, 7 p.m.

On Good Friday, April 14, at 7 p.m., there will be a Tenebrae service, in which we meditate on the Passion Story with readings and music.

A prayer vigil will be held in the sanctuary from 8 p.m. on Good Friday until noon on Holy Saturday. You can sign up for a half hour slot on the sheet in the narthex.

He is Risen! Celebrate Easter with music and praise at the 8 and 10:30 services on Easter Sunday, April 16.

An Easter Sunrise Service will be held at 6:30 a.m. on Easter Sunday at the Novaks' house, 4805 Eastridge Drive.

Worship Notes

April 2—Fifth Sunday in Lent: Jesus reveals his power over death by raising Lazarus from the dead. Ezekiel prophesies God breathing new life into dry bones. These stories proclaim God's promise of resurrection.

April 9—Palm Sunday: Today we begin with a palm processing, commemorating Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem. Today we hear Matthew's account of the passion.

April 16—Resurrection of Our Lord: Easter Sunday: On this day, we celebrate the new creation in our waters of baptism and in the feast of victory. Filled with hope, we go forth to hear the news that Christ is risen!

April 23—Second Sunday of Easter: Christ appears to the disciples and offers them the gift of peace. Even among doubts, we experience the resurrection on our Sunday gathering around word and meal.

April 30—Third Sunday of Easter: Two disciples are walking to Emmaus overcome with sadness and loss. Yet the risen Christ walks with them and opens their eyes in the breaking of the bread.

Lord of Love 45th Anniversary – June 2017

Lord of Love has had a history of celebrating, and it will be good to celebrate our beginnings as a congregation by gathering and displaying photos (digital and hard copies), festive worship on June 11, having a potluck on the evening of June 10, and a special breakfast provided by Table Grace Café 11; and giving to a special offering.

Photos may be posted on the main bulletin board in the narthex under “Then and Now.” Digital photos may be shared with Nicole Quackenbush. If you have photos for Nicole or would like to have your photos scanned, please contact her: nicole.quacke@gmail.com

A special offering will go to Iglesia Luterana San Andres and Camp Carol Joy Holling's Faithfully Forward Campaign for Sjogren Picnic Pavilion. Our goal is to raise $4500 to share between these two special ministries.

About Iglesia Luterana San Andres

San Andres is the redeveloped congregation that serves the immigrant Latino population in south Omaha (formerly Cristo Rey). Lord of Love has had connections with this congregation for years. It is one of our Mission Field Nebraska worshipping communities, and one under the direction of Rev. Rebecca Sheridan. It is growing, and the current number worshipping each Sunday is 150. San Andres seeks partnerships with other Nebraska Synod congregations and is in dire need of funds to help them do ministry.

About the Faithfully Forward Campaign for Sjogren Picnic Pavilion

Nebraska Lutheran Outdoor Ministries (NLOM) will create a unique outdoor dining space adjacent to the Sjogren Center's dining and meeting space for Ranch Camp. The space will also support the meeting and dining needs of retreat and conference guests and other large outdoor gatherings. In addition, the Sjogren Center's septic system will be updated and improved. The project will cost about $120,000. Any gifts made by June 1 will be matched by Immanuel Vision Foundation.

Lord of Love once had picnics and pork roasts near the lake at Camp Carol Joy Holling in the early days when few buildings and improvements were there. Over the years, the Youth group has spent time there. Rev. Paula Lawhead is Camp Pastor. It's been a while since we have given mission offering monies to Camp Carol Joy Holling, but we did support the revitalization of Western Town in 2011.

A Thankful Response to 45 Years

We look at giving special offerings to these organizations as ways of acknowledging our history while "passing it on." We encourage you to give generously from now through June, making a note on your checks or envelope, "45th Anniversary Offering."

OUTREACH

Habitat for Humanity

It is Habitat season again. Our rehab house this year is located at 2577 Pinkney. Lord of Love host dates are May 13 and August 26, 2017. All skill levels are needed. And there are always supervisors who are willing to teach new skills. We also need people who like to bake and cook to provide meals.

We are required to sign up on line this year, so please contact Jeri Morgan if you have a few hours to volunteer. For questions, call or text Jeri Morgan at 402.415.4976 or email jerrymorgan@ymail.com.

ENDOWMENT FUND

Nursing Scholarship Recipient

Meet Ramadhani Karia. The Endowment Fund made a $1,000 grant to the scholarship program at Machame Hospital in Kilimanjaro, Tanzania. The hospital awarded the grant to Ramadhani, who is beginning his first year of the Nursing Certificate course. There is no way he could afford to attend school without our assistance. When he completes his program, he will be able to care for thousands of Tanzanians over his career.

This is one of the many missions that the Endowment Fund supports.

MISSION

Special Offering

Thanks to all of you who have given so generously during Lent for the special offerings and soup suppers to help support the debt reduction funds for first-call pastors in the Nebraska Synod and for funds for the 2017 Youth Mission trip to New Orleans (see the next page for some other ways the youth are raising funds). The special Easter offering will also go to these ministries. Your giving truly helps us be Christ's church!

STEWARDSHIP

Not What, But Why

By Brandon Zalesky

Dear fair readers, this is my first experience writing anything . . . please be gentle! I should start off by thanking everyone from Lord of Love for embracing me and making me feel part of the family (even if I am associated with Shawn).

I was not sure what it meant to be a part of the Stewardship team, but after attending one of the meetings, it sparked many thoughts. The biggest thought that I left with was not what I give but why I give. The “why” is always a big part of our lives whether we know it or not. “Why do I want to get married?” “Why do I want kids?” “Why do I do the career that I do?” Many of these questions have been on my mind before. I have never taken the time to ask why I serve the Lord or why I give my time, energy and resources to serve others.

For me, the answer to “Why do I serve the Lord?” is easy. I believe that every person, experience and possession that has entered my life has been because of Him.

I am forever grateful for all of it, because it has shaped me into the person I am today. That is why I serve the Lord, to thank Him and show my appreciation for every single second in my life.

The second question—“Why do I give my time, energy and resources to serve others?”—I have had to think about for a long time. Ultimately, it comes down to me wanting to help create change in this world. I think that we can hope and pray all we want for change, but without us taking the first step to be the change we want to see, we will never see it. I hope that each of my actions creates a positive difference in someone’s life, which leads them to make a difference in someone else’s life, creating a domino effect.

Sometimes I am not able to give as much as I would like, but even a simple smile can go a long way towards helping someone.

Thank you all for the love and support you have shown me. I look forward to many years with each one of you!

MEN'S NEWS CORNER

Triennial Gathering

Three years ago, Lord of Love had the largest representation from a single congregation at the Lutheran Men in Mission event in Nashville. This year, our Lord of Love’s Men’s Ministry is purchasing 10 registrations to the Triennial gathering in Minneapolis, July 21 – 23. It’s a short 5½ hour drive, and we encourage men to join us for this weekend, where we will help strengthen and “Build men for Christ” across this nation, in our communities and our families. If you have a friend or know someone that might be interested, feel free to extend this invitation.

Carpool with us or drive yourself, but please consider this tremendous opportunity! Contact any of the usual suspects or let Mary Lou know if you are interested.
