Pentecost:

The day when the Spirit really started moving and shaking things up 50 days after Easter.

[Jesus said,] <sup>26</sup>“When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. <sup>27</sup>You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning.

<sup>12</sup>“I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. <sup>13</sup>When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. <sup>14</sup>He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. <sup>15</sup>All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.”

-John 15:26-27; 16:12-15

The above scripture captures Jesus message to his disciples before he was taken away and killed. All of the Easter Season then was a roller coaster of emotions from seeing their resurrected Lord appearing to them on several occasions, to watching him leave them once again as he ascended into heaven, leaving them to deal with this world without him. That is, until the promised advocate, the Holy Spirit, showed up at Pentecost.

On May 20, we will celebrate Pentecost. This day, the Holy Spirit empowered the disciples so greatly to share their faith and the good news of Jesus Christ with all people, that nothing could stop them from proclaiming Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior who have lived, suffered, died, and rose from the dead. Not even language barriers, as the Holy Spirit made their message to be able to be heard by all people. And now, God’s presence came to them with the most powerful truth: whoever comes to believe in Jesus will be forgiven, saved, and one day will live eternally with Him in heaven.

This Spirit-guided good news was definitely powerful and transformational for all people who truly heard it then, and for those who are aware of its presence today. It seems the thing that’s hardest for us to do today, is not to believe, but to feel compelled to share this good news of Jesus Christ and embracing our calling by God through the entirety of how we live into that in our daily lives. When we become aware that God is always with us, then the calling we have received by the Spirit is with us always too, and has the power to speak through us and in the different situations we find ourselves in. This makes every conversation we have with another an opportunity to share the gifts of the spirit and influence one’s day, week, year or life in a positive life-giving way. Yes, we also still live in the flesh and will have our own personal battles of selfishness to work through, but it should make us aware that being a Christian is something we can’t turn off and on whenever we feel like it, but rather (continued on next)

PASTOR'S PAGE

(continued from previous) is something we should be aware of as we make all our decisions, like how we answer the phone, how we treat the person in front of us (no matter how we feel about them) and how we go about doing our daily work or are also connected to how God is with us and speaking through us.

As we approach Pentecost, and people's lives are ever changing in a "summer" transitional way, may we also think about the powerful life-giving force of the Spirit that has gifted us the ability to witness to the love of God and let the power of God to speak through our lives with love, forgiveness, honesty, compassion, joy, etc. in whatever situation we have found ourselves in.

When we pray for God's guidance, I believe it is right there with us, encouraging us and helping us to be the children of God we were created to be on earth and in heaven. May we continue to notice the Spirit at work and let it speak through us. Amen.

-Pastor Becky

ENDOWMENT FUND

Light and Darkness

Then God said, "Let there be light"; and there was light. And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness.

Genesis 1:3

When discussing with Bob the things that were needed for the Machame Hospital in Tanzania, he mentioned that several light bulbs had burned out which made the hallways dark and dreary and had an effect on the moral of the staff and patients. So to help bring light to the hospital the Endowment Fund made a grant of $300 to be used for light bulbs. Since that grant was made the hospital has purchased several groups of light bulbs totaling more than 100. They are being put in empty sockets or replacing burnt out bulbs. So in a small way light is replacing darkness and the halls of the hospital are bright. The picture shows one of the purchases.

Lord of Love Community Garden and Lenten/Easter Offerings

The garden has been tilled, and onions, turnips and potatoes have been planted! Some posts for a garden fence are in place, but more work needs to be done to keep critters out. The morning of April 30 is the next planting date—for sweetcorn, carrots, etc. Tomatoes, peppers, and squash will be planted in May. Weeding will be the focus for garden work in June.

Besides providing food for the local pantries working in the garden is a good source of fun, and fellowship. Regular work times will be Monday and Thursday mornings.

Thanks to everyone who gave so generously to the special offerings taken at the Wednesday night Lenten services, the special Easter offering, and to the soup suppers! We took in a total of $4,905! That is awesome! $715 goes to the ELCA Good Gifts to buy a family farm, and the remainder, $4,190, will go to the Foodbank for the Heartland Summer Breakfast proceeds will go to the ELCA Lutheran Disaster Response. The ELCA does great work getting help to those in need when disaster strikes all over the world.

Bishop Eaton issues pastoral statement on humanitarian situation in Syria

"Give God no rest" (Isaiah 62:6-7) until that day when "the wolf and the lamb shall feed together. ... They shall not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain, says the Lord" (Isaiah 65:25) (ELCA social statement, "For Peace in God's World").

In recent days we have witnessed, with additional horror, further atrocities in Syria in a conflict that has taken almost countless lives over the past seven years and displaced millions of Syrians and others. (continued on next)

MISSION

Pastoral statement on humanitarian situation in Syria, cont.

Following the April 13 air strikes conducted by the armed forces of the U.S., the U.K. and France, the president and the general secretary of the Lutheran World Federation issued a statement, which I encourage ELCA members to read and prayerfully consider.

Our church is responding to the needs of Syrian refugees and displaced people through the Lutheran World Federation (LWF) and International Orthodox Christian Charities (IOCC), in coordination with ACT Alliance (formerly Action by Churches Together). The IOCC has been assisting those in need in Syria, Lebanon and Jordan to ensure food security, establish shelter, and provide better access to water and sanitation facilities, among other activities. LWF-Jordan is working with Syrian refugees and host communities in Amman, Mafraq, Irbid and in the Zaatari refugee camp, bolstering livelihoods through cash transfers and skills training in agriculture practices and improved technologies for vegetable production in home gardens to benefit malnourished children, pregnant and lactating women, and sick people. They are also providing psychosocial support, particularly among women. We plan to continue and intensify this work.

Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

God's work. Our hands.

In the face of this ongoing humanitarian crisis, our nation also needs to open its arms again to receive Syrian refugees for resettlement in the United States. We will continue to work in ecumenical partnership as we pray, advocate and work to receive refugees.

Last, but not least, our government, as part of the international community, needs to redouble its efforts to work diligently for a diplomatic resolution of this conflict. As U.N. Secretary General António Guterres said earlier this weekend, "There is no military solution to the crisis. The solution must be political."

In Christ,

The Rev. Elizabeth A. Eaton
Presiding Bishop

"Fishing for Funds" National Young Gathering Fundraiser

The National Youth Gathering is a tri-annual opportunity sponsored by the ELCA to promote the faith formation of our high school students across the country. Through days spent in interactive learning, worship, Bible study, service and fellowship, our young people grow in faith and (continued, next) are challenged and inspired to live their faith in their daily lives. Lord of Love is blessed to have 11 youth journeying to Houston with two chaperones for the Gathering.

There are many things that we need to get us there. First, we need your prayers: for safety and guidance, for growth and inspiration and transformation. Second, we need a few more funds.

This event is generally double the cost of our regular mission trip events. We have done a few fundraisers and this is our last. We are "FISHING FOR FUNDS" to help offset the costs of travel, hotel, registration, etc. You will find a bulletin board in the back of the Narthex with fish on envelopes with a $ amount on them. Simply choose an amount, fill out the card inside, insert the card and funds into the envelope and drop into the offering plate or give to Heather Christensen. You will receive donation credit on your LoL account and you will be helping the youth attend the Gathering! You might even find a golden ticket that will have two hours of service work or cookies made by the youth for you.

If we can clear the board of fish, we will raise $5,000. This would help to offset the cost for each participant (they are paying half) and/or leave funds in the Youth Fund for future use. We will be "fishing" through May 13. Thank you for your consideration, continued generosity, and support!

STEWARDSHIP

Sharing our Resources, by Deb Lund

Brian and I are children of children of the Great Depression. We know that some of what we do and who we are were formed as a result of our parents living on farms in the Great Plains through some very tough times in the 1930's.

Hunger was our focus for special Lenten and Easter offerings. I do not know what it is like to be truly hungry. As a kid, I know we didn't have much, as far as material things, but since we lived on a farm with dairy cows, pigs, sheep, cattle, and a huge garden, we were never in want of good food. And, since I grew up with a father who loved to fish in the lakes not far from home, I learned one needs to take some time for fun, and so got to enjoy great tasting fish often, too.

Brian's mom's family lived on a farm right off a main highway, and in the 30's, people stopped often needing food. She talked about her mother saying, "get some more milk and eggs," "add more water to the soup," "you'll have to sleep with your sister," etc, as they often hosted others and helped them out. She said they were blessed that they could do that, as there were many people seeking help. I know that our parents were very quick to provide food and clothing to those in need. Dad would often do planting, cultivating, and harvesting for farmers in trouble, and mom would provide some food to feed the farmers helping out. So, we witnessed many examples of generosity and thoughtfulness throughout our childhood.

Growing up with an example of helping others helps to encourage others to be generous and thoughtful. Being examples of Christ to those in our church family inspires, motivates and energizes our brothers and sisters. This is one reason it is important to attend worship regularly! Jesus commands us to witness our faith not only in our words, but in our actions. We are called to be Christ to others. Thanks be to God that we have the opportunity to do that!

The Stewardship Committee also reminds the congregation of current Project Hope food pantry needs:

- Creamed soups
- Dressings and marinades
- Brownie and cake mixes
- Applesauce
- Dried fruit
- Small bottles of dishwashing soap
- Deodorant
