"¹² As God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience.

¹³ Bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. ¹⁴ Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony."

-Colossians 3:12-14

Since Valentine's Day falls in this month, February is a natural time to remember our calling by God to "love one another as God has loved us." The Colossians passage above, which is often read at weddings, was originally written by Paul to encourage the community of Colossae to stay together as a community, despite hardships or persecutions happening around them, of which there were plenty of both to go around at that time. But basically it says that as we clothe ourselves in Christ and the baptismal promises that we make to one another, we should clothe ourselves in love, first and foremost at any given time.

That is not always easy. For it is much easier for us to act on whatever feeling is the strongest within us at the time. Have you seen the animated movie, "Inside Out"? In this movie, there are several emotions stirring within the mind of each person: Joy, Anger, Fear, Sadness, and Disgust. And even as you read these choices, you can imagine "Joy" is the one we would want to choose to rule us most of the time, for the others really don't give positive, feel-good vibes. But the reality is that all of these emotions hit us from time to time, and can overwhelm us and divide us with one another, unless we have a different center/focus than our emotional command center.

Paul knows this, and he knows that another command center has been given for us.

This all starts when we are baptized into Christ, and named and claimed as God's chosen ones forever. And at the same time we are blessed, gifted, called and enlightened by the Spirit to live out a higher calling than to simply depend on our own emotions and reactions to rule our interactions with one another. Instead, we are to be of the same mind of Christ, just as we are members of the body of Christ. He gets to be our new command center.

Having Jesus as our new central focus calls us as a community to let compassion, kindness, humility, meekness and patience rule us, while bearing in mind people and life aren't perfect. But we also know when we do mess up, we are still called to love one another and forgive one another as God has forgiven us. Once again, this is not easy. But the gifts we've been given give us hope enough to accompany us through this lifetime and onto the next.

(continued from previous) And if Christ is our head and focus, then we can do more than survive, but even thrive together knowing we are all claimed by God's grace and unconditional love. And if God so generously gives us another day to wake up and breathe, then we have yet another opportunity to start anew, learn from our mistakes, and trust that Christ will be our strength, and that the bond of God's love will be seen at work in and through us, possibly even drawing others into our community.

May Christ continue to be our guide and the center from which we grow and love one another!

MISSION

Mission Possible Update

Thanks, again, to all who supported the ministries of the ELCA AMMPARO program through special offerings for Thanksgiving, Advent, and Christmas, as well as the noisy offerings in November—we brought in $2750!

The Mission Possible team has designated the upcoming special offerings for Wednesday Lenten soup suppers and services, as well as the Easter offering, to our local Habitat for Humanity, ELF Coalition, for the amount of $1000, and the remainder to the Heart Ministry Center.

The mission of the Heart Ministry Center, at 24th and Binney, is “Providing food, clothing, healthcare and a way forward to people severely affected by poverty in the Omaha area.” They cover a wide range of services: food, clothing, health and dental care, social work and case management, legal services, parenting classes, employment assistance, and more.

Eric Crawford, executive director, will speak to us on Sunday, February 24, 2019. We are planning a volunteer opportunity to work in their food pantry on a Friday in March.

ELCA News: Israel-Palestine Conflict

ELCA Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton was a co-signatory of an ecumenical statement sent November 14 to all members of the U.S. Congress and Senate, as well as to the White House. The statement, signed by 16 U.S. Christian leaders, focuses on shifts in U.S. policy on the Israeli-Palestinian conflict.

“As leaders of U.S.-based churches and Christian organizations with long ties and close connections with Palestinian Christians and churches, we are deeply concerned about these developments and urge our elected officials to consider the devastating impact of these shifts on those most directly affected, as well as on the possibility of positive, constructive, and credible U.S. engagement to work for a resolution to this enduring conflict,” the statement reads, in part.

On November 15, the ELCA campaign Peace Not Walls sent an action alert calling on Congress to realign support for a just peace for Palestinians and Israelis. “Recent violence between Gaza and Israel is a tragic indicator of the need for a just and lasting peace between Palestinians and Israelis. Sadly, U.S. policy is working against such an outcome,” the alert read.

MEMBER CARE TEAM

"Walk" to Jerusalem

We started our 15 weeks of an imaginary walk to Jerusalem on January 13, 2019, with our goal to reach Jerusalem by Easter Sunday (April 20). The goal of this walk is threefold:

- to promote physical wellness with increase in activity;
- to enhance our spiritual growth; and
- to become better acquainted with our neighbors in the world.

We will cross the United States to JFK Airport in Queens where we will take a flight across the ocean to Casablanca. From there we will travel across Northern Africa through Algeria, Libya, Egypt and finally Israel. (FYI, the distance from Casablanca to Jerusalem is the majority of our journey.)

IT'S NOT TOO LATE TO JOIN US! As with most things in life, the more people involved the more fun! You can find all the information about the walk, including the mileage calculation information, the weekly tally sheets and the weekly devotions on the Lord of Love website under "News and Events." You can submit your weekly miles online or in the designated basket by the walk map in the narthex.

Be sure to check the walk map weekly to see how far we have moved on the world map. Any questions, please email membercareteam@lord-of-love.org.

Middle School Gathering Recap

By Charise Adams

The 2019 Middle School gathering was 26 hours packed with fun, fellowship, food and more. We piled in the van at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday, Jan. 19 – we got to push back our original 6:30 start time due to the icy weather. On the drive, there was lots of chatting, giggling, selfie-taking, game-playing, snacking—and even decent weather. Once we arrived at First Lutheran in Kearney, we started the weekend right away. Two exceptional musical and spoken word artists, Joe Davis and AGAPE* (Dave Scherer), got the kids moving and excited through some interactive dancing and singing in the sanctuary.

We enjoyed a lunch from Pizza Hut with all the other kids and adult leaders, and, after an orientation, began our service projects. Lord of Love joined Salem Lutheran Church of Dakota City at the Jubilee Center, a food pantry and thrift store that helps provide for the basic needs of the community. Everyone helped either organize the storage part of the store or folded and hung donations in the shop (the youth may have tried on some of the more unusual articles of clothing as well, and we only broke a couple of things...)

When we returned, we did some devotions to explore the meaning of this service activity and the theme for the weekend, "Rooted", from Colossians 2:6–7 (NLT): "And now, just as you accepted Christ Jesus as your Lord, you must continue to follow him. ⁷Let your roots grow down into him, and let your lives be built on him. Then your faith will grow strong in the truth you were taught, and you will overflow with thankfulness." Bishop Brian Maas gave a great talk on what these verses and this theme mean to him (Google "Pando").

After setting up our somewhat spartan sleeping areas, having supper, and playing some games, we experienced one of the highlights of the weekend: a concert, or really an interactive worship experience, by Joe Davis and AGAPE*. They brought a truly joyful noise to the sanctuary and had the kids joining in, up on stage singing "Lutheran Swag" and other catchy songs. They exuded humor, positive energy, and charisma while everything they did was indeed rooted in Christ. They assured the kids that God will always stand with us and that we are never alone. ("There is no grace period. Only grace, period," Davis spoke in one of his poems). Davis and AGAPE* also led the youth in a powerful workshop on Sunday morning to remind them of God's faithfulness and the fact that they can count on it no matter what.

Saturday night was capped by a trip to the local YMCA, which had been rented out for the event. Youth had their pick of playing ball in the enormous "supergym," running through the bounce house, playing ping-pong and racquetball, and much more – plus snacks and slushies – until 11 p.m.!

The next morning was just as packed as the day before. After cleaning up our sleeping spaces by 8 a.m. (or so...) we had a pancake breakfast and moved on to workshops. We also worshiped with First Lutheran.

After lunch, we heard several amazing stories from the adult leaders at the event who shared what "rooted" meant in their own lives. These leaders had set up some creative prayer stations for the youth to rotate through quietly – for example, praying by coloring, praying in "sand," and praying for as long as they could hold a mint in their mouth (I will never forget the image of five or six tween girls squeezed together, kneeling before a window, and praying in silence as their mints dissolved). Then Davis and AGAPE* wrapped up the weekend with some more prayer, song, dance and laughter. As you can imagine, it wasn't long after we left before every kiddo had fallen asleep in the van!

The congregation should be proud of the youth for representing LOL so well at the MSG. They realized how they are "rooted" in Christ and connected to one another as members of the body of Christ.

Please give blood.

CHURCH COUNCIL

From the Council President, Brian Lund

"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another."

-John 13:34 (NIV)

The church council has taken up discussion of our focus topics of worship, Sunday School, and strengthening the ways we reach out into the community. Initially we used a series of questions to reflect on who we are, what we value, how we worship, how we form faith, and who our neighbors are. At the second part of our retreat, we will dive deeper to identify possible changes in the Sunday schedule, faith formation program, and how we interact with and invite others. Our intent is to engage the congregation in focused discussion on these same topics at a meal and visioning activity following our February semi-annual meeting. I hope that you will plan to come and participate in the meeting and discussion.

Why is this important?

Worship is a central expression of our faith. We gather in worship to seek and receive forgiveness, to be reminded of our baptism, to hear about God's enduring love for us, and to give thanks and praise for our many blessings. We want to ensure that all who worship with us have a meaningful worship experience. How do we best address the recent trend of smaller numbers in our worship services?

In the rite of baptism, we make commitments to provide instruction in faith to our children and to support parents in the faith formation of their children. We need to look at the ways we engage our families, youth, and young people and address the busy-ness of our lives today.

Throughout Scripture, we are encouraged to show love to others in response to God's grace freely given to us. We are generous with our gifts of time and money to support mission in many different ways. Are there adjustments to how and where we do this that could have a more direct effect on our local community?

"Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

-Matthew 28:19-20 (NIV)

At our February annual meeting, we also elect two people to represent our congregation as delegates to the Nebraska Synod Assembly. This year that event is Thursday, May 30 thru Saturday, June 1 in Kearney. If you are interested in being one of our representatives this year, please let me know.

Please continue to pray for the ELCA, Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton, our Nebraska Synod, Bishop Brian Maas, Pastor Becky, our staff, our members, our ministry together, and for all of those who are in need.

Blessings in faith and service,
Brian Lund

Stewardship and Gratitude, by Kathy Christiansen

“To all in Rome [Lord of Love] who are loved by God and called to be his holy people: Grace and peace to you from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ. First, I thank my god through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is being reported all over the world.”
-Romans 1: 7-8.

In these verses from the book of Romans, Paul is expressing his thanks and appreciation to Christ's followers in Rome. The Stewardship Committee would like to use these words to express our appreciation to all of the Lord of Love members. We thank you for your participation in Noisy November, whether that was some coins in the pans or submitting a Commitment Card for 2019 or giving a temple talk about your response to God's generosity. All of it was greatly appreciated!

Much ministry is accomplished here at Lord of Love. It might not always get “reported all over the world,” but some of our gifts do go to the worldwide missions of the ELCA. And some of our gifts stay in our local community where the food we donate or the service we provide really does make a difference in our neighbors' lives. Lastly, some of our monetary gifts support all the ministries at Lord of Love.

So, we give thanks “for all of you” and your faith and support of the ministry of Jesus Christ here in our Lord of Love community.

“Knowing what must be done does away with fear.”

MEN'S NEWS CORNER

Men's Breakfast Group

Men's Breakfast Group meets Saturday mornings at 0700 in the fellowship hall. All men are welcome.

WOMEN OF LOVE

"Gather" Bible Studies

"Gather" Bible study groups are studying The Gospel of John: Meetings with Jesus. The theme of the February study is: "By night and day: Coming to faith in Jesus." In this session, we meet Nicodemus, who comes to Jesus at night with questions of faith. We meet the Samaritan woman who talks with Jesus in the middle of the day about religious practice. We meet a royal official who seeks healing for his dying son and a paralyzed man who has waited 38 years for healing. We sit with the crowd that is fed by Jesus and struggles to understand his teaching, chewing on his words "I am the bread of life."

All women are invited to attend either one of two study groups. Deb Christenson will host with a light supper at 6 p.m. on Monday, Feb. 4, 15859 Larimore Plaza (please call her at 402-403-1139 for more information and/or to let her know that you are coming).

The Wednesday evening group will meet at Lord of Love in the Mary Room at 6 p.m. on Feb. 5. Dinner is served beginning at 5:30. Contact Ruth Manning at 402-451-0221 for further information.

Lutheran Women of Omaha

Lutheran Women of Omaha will meet at noon on Tuesday, February 12 at Luther Memorial Church, 61st and Western. Program will be a representative from Lutheran Family Services, with a free-will offering designated for that ministry. Luncheon cost is $7; membership is $3.

Please make your reservation with Ruth Manning, 402-451-0221 by 3 p.m., Sunday, February 10.

What are "Thankofferings"?

It's a new year, and many of us women are once again collecting our Thanksoffering using our boxes, jars, and other containers.

The idea of collecting donations in small offering boxes goes back to the very early 1800s, when women formed "mite" or "cent" societies to raise money. Mite boxes were given out as fundraising tools to collect pennies for the support of church projects and foreign missionaries. Today, Women of the ELCA collects more than $1 million in Thankofferings annually for the ministries and mission of our women's organization.

Thankofferings show gratitude for God's blessings and give us an important and tangible way to express that gratitude. It is a tradition grounded in our celebration of community, of meeting together to joyfully give thanks for what God has given us. Thankofferings have always been our opportunity to say thank you to God in both significant and ordinary moments.

Why do the Women of Love recognize Thanksoffering during worship? To invite everyone to participate (please remember, it's a personal choice to participate or not). It gives people other than those active in Women of Love the opportunity to contribute. Sometimes a husband might give in honor (or memory) of his wife. Or someone might want to contribute a Thankoffering just as they might help support the youth who are collecting offerings for a youth gathering or mission trip.

"Thanksoffering" is a term uniquely used by the Women of the ELCA. 100% of the monies collected are sent to the Churchwide offices of the Women of the ELCA to support ongoing ministries of the churchwide expression of WELCA.
