"Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life. 5) For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. 10) The death he died, he died to sin, once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God."

-Romans 6:4-5, 10

I love the crisp change in air that comes in October (usually), along with the beautiful fall colors that begin to appear as the colors of life blooming around us change from green to colors of fire (red, yellow and orange) to the golden browning on the outside where signs of life seem to become hidden from view. But this dying and browning are only temporary, for we know that new life will spring forth upon the earth again.

This idea of death and life made me think of this passage from Romans because it is one that talks about baptism, death and new life. During October, and on into Sunday, November 3, we will be contemplating these very things ideas. We have two infant baptisms scheduled, where we will likely smile at the gift of new life in our midst and recall the promises God made with all of us on the day of our baptism (and/or on the days our loved ones were also welcomed into new life with Christ) and how this gift of death to ourselves and new life in Christ continues to bring to mind the promises of love, hope, peace, grace and mercy that hold and claim us forever.

This is also the time to start thinking about what things have come about in our lives, that we'd like to have die, be it a string of unfortunate events, pain and suffering, any angst in tension-filled relationships, and all other burdens we've been holding onto that we would like to see die and fly from our lives as the leaves will soon start to fall from weathered trees. Yet, we aren't so good at letting go, even when doing so might help us to envision ways new life is right around the corner.

It is also hard for us to remember blessings that have been promised to come, in the midst of pain we too might be carrying. It is even hard to be the church, that never seems to get us quite where we'd hoped and prayed we might be in the budget or with our numbers in worship, even if we can see and feel great things happening. Yet even when we can clearly see God at work granting us newness of life... dying is still a harsh reality that we face, even as we trust God with our future. Things will change...but that God promises to be with us always is (continued, next)

So as we continue to recall God's faithfulness and everlasting promises given to us as children of God (and to the new people God brings to Lord of Love), may we never stop seeing the ways God takes our little faithfulness and does great things with it. May we see these stories through the quilts that are sewn, the lives we are able to touch. May we lovingly and faithfully spray colors of God's love into the lives of those who are deeply looking to find a sign of new life.

At Lord of Love, I can see God doing amazing things. I also see God bringing about new life and dreams. Yet sometimes, we all need to be reminded, that God continues to bring new life, even when dying and failures seem so prevalent. God is still present, leading and guiding, and bringing about a new life rooted in the waters of baptism that flow and connect us to God and one another through Jesus Christ forever. For God's love nourishes like the roots of trees and grass, where even when we are cut off from growth, God is still feeding us, new seeds are being gathered and harvested, and we are always changing and growing, only to prepare for the next bloom cycle.

May our baptismal waters continue to set us free, bring new life, and call us to be faithful knowing that God's plan for new life is always greater than the dying we fear.

God's peace be with you,
Pastor Becky <><

MISSION

"Mission Possible" Update

The Mission Possible Team designated the upcoming special offerings for Noisy November, Thanksgiving, Wednesday Advent Worship, and Christmas to the ELCA AMMPARO program and a family farm from ELCA "Good Gifts." See below for information about the special efforts to assist our neighbors in El Salvador, Honduras, and Guatemala; as well as migrant minors seeking asylum in the US. We hope to have a speaker come to give us more insight at the worship services and the adult forum. Details to come.

We will host a volunteer opportunity at the Food Bank of the Heartland on Tuesday, October 22, from 5-7 p.m. Visit the Food Bank of the Heartland event registration page: <http://cerv.is/m?0353gRyEUWG> to sign up to help.

Those wishing to carpool should meet at Lord of Love at 4:30 p.m. Otherwise, we'll meet at the volunteer entrance to the food bank at 5 p.m. Only those who have pre-registered may participate. (Please talk to Deb Lund if you have trouble signing up via their website event page.)

About ELCA AMMPARO

The word "amparo" in Spanish means the protection of a living creature from suffering or damage. The ELCA's strategy to Accompanying Migrant Minors with Protection, Advocacy, Representation and Opportunities (AMMPARO) was envisioned after witnessing the plight of children who are forced to flee their communities because of complex and interrelated reasons, including chronic violence, poverty, environmental displacement and lack of opportunities in El Salvador, Honduras and Guatemala. Due to our connection to companion churches in the region, including companion synod relationships, and existing ministries in the U.S., the ELCA is well-positioned to help ensure that these vulnerable children are protected.

The Nebraska/Western Iowa Synods' AMMPARO Task Force seeks to be a local partner with the national ELCA strategy to accompany migrant minors.

For additional resources, go to www.elca.org/ammparo. You can also contact MaryCampbell, AMMPARO convener, at mary.campbell@elca.org.

"Dios es nuestro amparo y fortaleza,"
("God is our refuge and strength,")
—Psalm 46:1

From Council President Brian Lund

"The one who plants and the one who waters have one purpose, and they will each be rewarded according to their own labor. For we are co-workers in God's service; you are God's field, God's building. By the grace God has given me, I laid a foundation as a wise builder, and someone else is building on it. But each one should build with care. For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ."

-1 Corinthians 3: 8-11 (NIV)

The council has finished our first pass through our financial plan for ministry (aka budget) for 2020. Together we look at the details of our total ministry and try to discern the best use of the funds entrusted to our care. There are some challenges and frustrations involved in this planning. There are things we dream of doing, but defer because of financial constraints. Challenges arise as our "fixed costs" of operation continue to rise even as we work at making our building and support services more efficient. The plan includes some exciting additions to our ministry that strengthen our service to the community. Please come to our Ministry Plan Forum on Oct. 13 to review our plan and provide input/feedback.

The council is also looking at ways to alleviate the existing financial deficit that increased during the summer months. We give thanks for the generous giving of our members. Lord of Love is paying all of the bills. However, received funds are inadequate to move money into our special accounts (Major Improvement Fund, Special Funds). Please pray for wisdom for the council as we work to address this issue.

The life of our congregation is richer when our members participate in sharing of our faith stories and working together as a community in the mission of the church. I invite all of our members to prayerfully consider periodically giving of your time to help with congregation activities outside of Sunday worship. There are many one-time service opportunities that take only a few hours. Working together as the body of Christ, we can accomplish much.

"Be shepherds of God's flock that is under your care, watching over them—not because you must, but because you are willing, as God wants you to be; not pursuing dishonest gain, but eager to serve; not lording it over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock."

-1 Peter 5:2-3 (NIV)

Please continue to pray for the ELCA, Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton, our Nebraska Synod, Bishop Brian Maas, Pastor Becky, our staff, our members, our ministry together, and for all of those who are in need.

Blessings in faith and service,

Brian Lund

Stewardship in the Community

Laura Armitage: Nebraska Lutheran Campus Ministry

Nebraska Lutheran Campus ministry is busy around the Omaha metro area! I, along with Don Rowen, serve as a committee member on the "NEMO" board, which serves college students at the University of Nebraska-Omaha, Metro Community College, College of St. Mary, and Iowa Western Community College. The NEMO board is comprised of a diverse group of adults from ELCA churches around the Omaha metro area. The purpose of our advisory board is to manage the integration of NEMO with the broader Nebraska Lutheran Campus Ministry and to help provide programming for NEMO students. Some of these activities include the annual Evensong event, weekly undergraduate student fellowship (which is housed at St. Timothy's church), God & Grads Bible study, and smaller events such as Trunk-or-Treat at Halloween and local service projects.

We are working hard on a busy schedule of activities for the NEMO students this year! Stay tuned for dates for our fundraiser events. We welcome support of all kinds- it really takes a village to pull together students from so many schools into one cohesive group within our city.

If you know of any college students in Omaha to refer to NEMO, contact Pastor Jim Holthus at lootrn@hotmail.com with the student's contact information so we can reach out to them. Thanks to Lord of Love for your support of Campus Ministry in Omaha!

MEN'S NEWS CORNER

Men's Breakfast Group

The Men's Breakfast Group meets Saturday mornings at 0700 in the fellowship hall. All men are welcome.

WOMEN OF LOVE

Women's General Meeting

November is quickly approaching, and we need your help! On Nov. 9 at 9 a.m., LOL Women of Love will hold their annual planning meeting (with a light meal) for 2020 activities as we work to fulfill the purpose of the Women of the ELCA:

As a community of women created in the image of God, called to discipleship in Jesus Christ, and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we commit ourselves to grow in faith, affirm our gifts, support one another in our callings, engage in ministry and action, and promote healing and wholeness in the church, the society, and the world.

We will evaluate the program for 2019 and include, revise, add or eliminate activities to help us in our spiritual growth.

We need some more women to serve on our ministry team that oversees the women's ministry at Lord of Love. We need some more ideas as we plan. Contact Rose Roberts (402-689-4802) or Ruth Manning (402-451-0221) if you can help us. Thanks!

11th Triennial Gathering/Convention

Let's go to Phoenix! The upcoming convention will be held in Phoenix July 14-July 16 followed by the gathering July 15-19. The triennial convention is the highest legislative authority within the organization. Along with official business of the CWO, voting members will elect four officers and 17 board members to the churchwide executive board for 2020-2023. You do not need to be a delegate to attend the convention; any one can visit as a guest.

The Gathering will offer speakers, workshops, worship, service opportunities, and more.

Early bird registration is $325. After Jan. 6, the fee goes up to $375. Watch for updates at: <https://www.womenoftheelca.org/new-triennial-event-page>

*"Do your little bit of good where you are; it is those little bits of good put all together that overwhelm the world."
—Bishop Desmond Tutu*

WOMEN OF LOVE

Lutheran Women of Omaha

St. Timothy's Lutheran Church, 510 N. 93rd St., will host the Oct. 8 meeting of Lutheran Women of Omaha at noon. Luncheon will be served for $7.

Teela Mickles, founder/CEO of Compassion in Action, Inc. will be the guest speaker. The faith-based non-profit organization serves individuals in the state correctional facilities and families affected by incarcerations and also facilitates a gang prevention program for boys. The free-will offering has been designated for that ministry.

Please make reservations with Ruth Manning, 402-451-0221 by 3 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 6.

Thankofferings, Blessing of Quilts

On Oct. 13, our annual Thankoffering Service and Blessing of the Quilts for Lutheran World Relief will take place at both worship services.

Lutheran World Relief
SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT. LASTING PROMISE.

The monetary thankofferings are a long-standing custom among Lutheran women. We give in thanksgiving for blessings received. Your generosity helps support the ongoing ministries of the churchwide Women of the ELCA, including our triennial conventions, the work of your elected churchwide board, the annual conference of synodical presidents, our communications ministries, justice and advocacy work, and much more. Special offering envelopes will be available next to the guestbook in the narthex.

In addition, LOL women have a long history of making quilts, some of which are distributed

Thankofferings, Blessing of Quilts

(continued) locally, but most are sent to Lutheran World Relief. We all know the comfort and care we feel when we snuggle under a quilt. That's the feeling we share through an LWR Mission Quilt. Useful for shielding against the cold and rain and for warm bedding, quilts can also be used as simple tents, floor coverings, or a wrap to hold a baby on a mother's back. In a simple combination of fabric and thread, we reach out to people in their time of greatest need with a strong message of hope.

In addition to the women taking their thankofferings to the altar at a designated time in the service, Pr. Becky will lead us in the blessing of the quilts made from fabric donated by our congregation and made with loving hands.

Thanks to all for supporting these ministries. If you would like to help with quilts, the group meets at 9 a.m. on the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of the month at the church.

Gather Bible Study

All women are invited to attend one of the two LOL study groups. The Wednesday evening group meets in the Mary Room at 6 p.m. on Oct. 2 (no meal).

The Monday evening group dinner meeting will be held at the home of Deb Christenson, 16117 Clay Court, Bennington at 6 p.m. on Oct. 7. Please call Deb at 402-403-1139 if you plan to attend.
